

A company which supports asset-building with houses.

The mission of HyAS & Co. Inc. is to create an environment in which individuals can comfortably acquire (purchasing), live in (operating), and change (selling) residential real estate.

Our goal is to achieve a society which links house acquisition to the asset-building of individuals.

HyAS business areas

Mapping of various services

Search for land

Build house

Live in

Sell/hand over

Physical infrastructure

Custom order house combining both high functionality and high-quality design

Insulation renovation for detached houses, which is non-destructive and built in a short time frame at a specific price

Leased detached house

Select house combining both high functionality and high-quality design

Detached home-style lodging facility

Informational infrastructure

Real estate property information gathering system

Information sharing-based system which records data of the house

Real estate brokerage service which offers support from a neutral position

Simulation tool for financial plans upon purchasing house

不動産相続の相談窓口

Real estate business consulting which starts with inheritance

Simulation tool for utilizing land

ハイアス家価値サポート

Outsourcing service for after-sales services